

String Permutation

A permutation of a set of items is an arrangement of those items. Write a recursive method `permute` that prints all permutations of the string `s` that can be obtained by rearranging the characters.

- a) Assume all characters in string `s` are unique
- b) Characters in string `s` can be duplicate